

Kilby St Mary's C of E Primary School Curriculum Willow Year 2 History

Term: Spring 1 A	Topic Title: Childhood Then and Now: How do Lowry and Bruegel show aspects of change in their paintings?
NC Objectives	Key Knowledge and Vocabulary
changes within living memory. Where appropriate, these should be used to reveal aspects of change in national life events beyond living memory that are significant nationally or globally the lives of significant individuals in the past who have contributed to national and international achievements. Some should be used to compare aspects of life in different periods significant historical events, people and places in their own locality	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • To know that toys in the past were different to toys today • To describe toys of the past • To know that there are different children's craves over time. • To compare toys from the past with toys they have • To know that photographs can be ordered chronologically • To know that homes have changed over time. • To know that there are external features common to all homes • To know that there are internal features common to all homes • To know that most homes in Victorian times did not have electricity • To know that schools have changed over time. • To know that education has changed over time • To know that schools can compared at different times • To know that photos can be used as sources of evidence • To know that clothes have changed over time • To know that children's entertainment has changed over time. • To know that activities they do, are for entertainment • To know that hobbies have changed over time • To know that things can be organised into categories • To know that Lowry was a famous artist • To know that his paintings depict life in Pendlebury, Lancashire where he grew up. • To know that Lowry lived 1887-1976 • To know he was famous for painting industrial districts • To know his figures were referred to as 'Matchstick men' • To know his painting of 'Children's Playground' shows how children played in 1945. • To know that Pieter Bruegel the Elder was a famous artist • To know Bruegel died in 1569. • To know that Bruegel was a Flemish painter and lived in what is now known as The Netherlands. • To know that Bruegel painting a large painting called "Children's Games" which shows how children played in 1560.

Kilby St Mary's C of E Primary School Curriculum
Willow Year 2 History

--	--